THE PRESIDENT IS RAILWAY STUDENT

Is Availing Himself of Every Opportunity of Becoming Acquainted With Situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Questions affecting the railroad situation occupied more or less of the attention of President Roosevelt today. During the morning there were informal talks with some of his callers on the subject, a dispatch came from President Mellen, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, asking when it would be convenient for the President to him, and in the afternoon there was a visit from Governor Deneen and Attorney-General Stead, of Illinois.

A semi-official denial was made that the Governor and the Attorney-General occupied more or less of the attention of President Roosevelt today. From statements, however, which have come from authoritative quarters, preceding the Governor's visit, the inference is drawn that there was some reference during the talk with the President to the Chicago-Alton deal, which figured prominently in the recent investigation of Harriman before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The President is known to be availing himself of every opportunity to become acquainted generally with the railroad situation, and specifically it exists in certain directions, and the impression is general that this question was touched on to some extent at least in the conference with Governor Deneen. The latter would make no statement on the subject.

Not to Issue Statement.

A rumor gained currency to-day that the President intended to issue a statement defining, in positive language, his attitude on the relations of the government to the railroads. An impression to this effect apparently got abroad from the fact that the President had read to some of his callers extracts from speeches he had made and letters he had written on the subject on some features of the railroad question. All reports of this character, however, proved to be groundless, and later it was ascertained, on the best authority, that the President would not issue such a statement to-day, nor did he have any such idea in contemplation.

One of the President's early callers to-day was James Speyer, of New York, the head of the firm of Speyer & Co. To many his call looked significant, as it closely followed on that of Wednesday. It was impossible to ascertain either from the White House or from Mr. Speyer the purpose of the latter's visit.

Governor Deneen and Attorney-General Stead were with the President for fully an hour. The Governor was at the White House at the President's request to discuss "certain questions" of the nature of which he declined to disclose. After the conference, the Governor called on Senator Culham, and later took the 5:15 o'clock train for Chicago.

Neither the Governor nor Mr. Stead would make any statement on the subject of their interview with the President. The Governor only admitting that nothing had been agreed upon that would require immediate action. Governor Deneen gave the newspapers to understand that he understood that he expected the President to make a statement about the interview, but nothing in that form was given out at the White House. It was explained there that the arrangements for the Governor's visit to Washington had been made before the recent flurry in Wall Street.

Tuesday next the President is to have a conference with President Mellen, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad. The interview is at Mr. Mellen's initiative. Mr. Mellen is one of the railroad presidents with whom J. Pierpont Morgan asked Mr. Roosevelt to confer as to what "steps might be taken to allay the public anxiety as to the relations between the railroads and the government."

So far as ascertained at the White House, Mr. Mellen is the only one of the presidents who has asked for an interview and it is not known whether he represents himself alone or all four of the presidents named by Mr. Morgan.

There are many people who can see nothing good in a doughnut except the hole. For them there is nothing in this world but calamity. Their greatest trouble is to have to eat three times a day. The stomach is in rebellion, and this is immediately shown in a man's face. A man to be successful must have a good stomach, a strong stomach, a stomach that can take care of anything and everything that is put into it. No matter whether it is a very bad stomach or not.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing. One ingredient of these little tablets digests 2,000 grains of food, and no matter how bad your dyspepsia or indigestion, they will digest it. They will quickly cure loss of appetite, and completely, and better and more quickly than a good strong, healthy stomach can do it. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will quickly cure loss of appetite, indigestion, heartburn, eructations, loss of sleep, and all the other troubles of dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world do this. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are with you wherever you go and take them after meals. Then only will you realize what it is to enjoy a meal and what perfect digestion means. Your whole body and your mind will feel the effect. You will be more satisfied with what the world does, you will think happier and be happier, and your face will be one of supreme contentment. You will bring success, and then more success. Your face will bring you dollars. Try it. It will cost you nothing. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth.
